

A NEW SEASON

Dear Lois,

A new season has arrived! Daffodils and Forsythia are in bloom and the weeds are growing as fast as the grass!

It's time to review the first quarter of 2010 and plan for the second quarter.

A NEW SEASON

Did you jump start 2010 by being proactive?

Instead of making resolutions did you make a "TO DO LIST" as discussed in the January newsletter?

It's the end of the first quarter and time to review your list, see what you've accomplished and make a new list for the second quarter of 2010.

How much have you accomplished? What do you need to do this quarter to keep yourself ahead of the game?

Are there new skills for you to learn?
Are there networking opportunities that you've let slip by?
Are there people you want to contact?

Let's get started NOW!

The Word*Smith's 2010 First Quarter Highlights

I just returned from the 2010 Career Thought Leaders Conference and Symposium to learn cutting-edge career strategies, trends and solutions to help my clients take control of their careers. While there I facilitated a colleague to colleague discussion on Resumes for Independent Contractors.

I am in the state of information overload and over the next few months will share much of this information with you. Suffice to say, the impact of Social Media is changing the way we think, connect and proceed with our lives.

My networking is a work in progress. I've been able to meet wonderful people in all walks of life who are supportive of others and willing to share their knowledge on a multitude of topics.

Workshop and webinar topics have been increased as planned and they have been successfully received.

I asked for and received interesting and inspiring Reinvention Stories. If you haven't sent yours in do so now.

Most important of all is that I've been able to work with clients on analyzing and writing their resumes.
